

Professional Disclosure Statement

Dominic M. Denning, M.S.

I am a part-time Advance Practicum Intern at the Brattleboro Retreat, currently completing a doctoral degree in Clinical Psychology at the University of Massachusetts Amherst. I am registered as a non-licensed and non-certified psychotherapist in Vermont (Credential #097.0136482). My areas of specialization include third-wave cognitive behavioral treatment of borderline personality disorder, emotional disorders, and life-threatening behaviors (e.g., suicide, disordered eating, nonsuicidal self-injury, etc.).

I can be contacted Monday and Wednesday (8:30am – 4:00pm) at 802-275-3244, or ddenning@brattlebororetreat.org

My mailing address is:

Per Vermont Statutes of governing the practice of non-licensed and non-certified psychotherapists, I am required to provide the following information. All of this information was included in the welcome packet that was sent to you, for your signature, prior to our first appointment:

- Actions that constitute unprofessional conduct. In addition to the welcome packet, this information can be found here: <https://legislature.vermont.gov/statutes/fullchapter/26/078>
- Methods for filing a complaint or making an inquiry:
  - Please first discuss any concerns regarding your treatment directly with me.
  - If you are not satisfied with my response or the resolution of your complaint, please contact Jessica Tamulonis, Ph.D., the Director of the PHP/IHP program at (802) 275-3165, or jtamulonis@brattlebororetreat.org
  - If this process is insufficient, you may contact the Brattleboro Retreat Patient Advocate at (802) 258-6118. In addition, you may contact Disability Rights Vermont (DRV), a non-profit advocacy agent for the rights of people with psychiatric disabilities, at (800) 834-7890.
